"HOC SIGNO FORTUNA."

BALTIMORE, THURSDAY, FEB. 25, 1819.

The Drawing.

THE MARYLAND STATE LOTTERY was drawn yesterday agreeably to public notice, and under the superintendence of the Commissioners.—The great prizes were rolled up at half past ten o'clock in the presence of a large assemblage of the citizens and deposited in the wheel. At eleven o'clock Fortune commenced the distribution of her favors.—The whole of the Tickets in the Scheme having been contracted for by us originally, we of course disposed of all the prizes, but agreeably to our usual custom we shall only mention the great good fortune attending our retail sales, having sold no less than SIX of the FIVE THOUSAND DOLLAR PRIZES as noted below, TWO WERE SOLD IN SHARES.—A part of them owned in this City, and part in Loudoun Co. Virginia—Columbia, S. Carolina—Marietta (Penn.)—Philadelphia, &c. Of the Thousand dollar Prizes we distributed a portion almost in every section of the Union, so general had been the sales by orders from distant places, and we feel much gratified in continuing to our friends the usual success attending investments at this Office.

The official list of the whole drawing of the Maryland State Lottery, will be found on the opposite page.

Washington City, Feb. 23.

It is said, and we have no doubt correctly, that the President of the United States yesterday laid before the Senate a TREATY recently concluded between Mr. Secretary ADAMS, on the part of the UNITED STATES, and DON LUIS DE ONIS, on the part of SPAIN, FOR A CESSION OF FLORIDA to the United States, and a provision for the payment, in consideration thereof, of a sum of money to our merchants having claims on the Spanish government for spoliation on their property; including also a settlement of the Western boundary line between the United States and Spain. This highly important Treaty, so long wished, so long expected, if ratified, will impose on Congress the necessity of organizing a government for that territory before adjournment, and will add thus much to the mass of important business already before them.

There are at this time twelve Cherokee Chiefs in this city, being a Delegation from their nation for the purpose of settling more definitively some measures relating to an exchange of lands, with a view, at the same time, to a more extensive diffusion of the means of school education for the rising generation. Those Chiefs, by their manners and deportment, exhibit a practical proof, to those who may have had doubt on that head, that the natives of this country only want the means of improvement to place them on an equality with the intelligent part of our citizens.

Supreme Court.

IMPORTANT DECISION.

Washington, Wednesday, Feb. 17.

Mr. Chief Justice MARSHALL delivered the opinion of the Court in the case of Sturges against Crowninshield.

1st. That, since the adoption of the constitution of the U. States, a state has authority to pass a bankrupt law, provided such laws does not impair the obligation of contracts, within the meaning of the constitution.

2dly. That the act of New-York, (that of 1811,) which was pleaded in this cause, so far as it purports to discharge the contract on which this suit was instituted, is a law impairing the obligation of contracts, within the meaning of the constitution of the United States.

The effect of which, we understand to be, to invalidate such parts of the state laws as discharge the insolvent as to his subsequent acquisitions of property, whilst it confirms them so far as they discharge the debtor only from arrest and imprisonment.

From the London Morning Chronicle, Oct. 2.

We see a navy growing to such a magnitude on the other side of the Atlantic, that those who have our maritime superiority at heart have the best founded cause of apprehension. What are the funds devoted to the increase of this navy which so justly alarms us? We are so accustomed to the expenditure of great sums for little objects, that we can ill form an idea of what great objects can be performed by the expenditure of small sums by a really economical government. The expense of the establishment at Windsor exceeds the annual allocation for the rapid increase of the navy of America. It exceeds, too, the whole of the civil expenditure of a government which causes itself to be respected in every quarter of the world—a government which has never found any difficulty in obtaining men of abilities in every department. The lay Lords of the Admiralty, whom we are taught by Ministers to look up to as the nation's hope, cost more than the whole of the United States' Cabinet, with the President into the bargain. Yet the United States are better able to pay their public servants than we are. Let us not be above taking a lesson from them, for, in truth, they can already give us not a few.

General Jackson.

From the New-York Gazette, February 21.

The reception of general JACKSON on Saturday, was such as to excite on his part the most grateful sensibilities he ever experienced, and such as was honourable to the city of New-York. At 12 o'clock, the general landed at Whitenall from on board the Steam Boat Nautilus, from the seat of the Vice President on Staten Island. When passing the Battery, his approach was announced by a salute fired by a detachment of artillery. He ascended the pier under a salute from the Revenue Cutter, amidst the animating buzzes of thousands who had assembled to behold the man who had performed so many and such important services. Having mounted his horse, the general was escorted by two companies of cavalry through Broadway to the City Hall, where he was received by the Mayor and Corporation. After the ceremonies at the Hall, he was escorted to his lodgings, where he received numerous visits until 4 o'clock. A little after five, the general with his suite, proceeded to the residence of his honor the Mayor, where they dined. In the evening, he attended the Theatre, which was crowded with beauty and fashion.

To-morrow evening Gen. Jackson will attend the Military Ball; and next day will honor the citizens with his presence at a Public Dinner, when he will be presented by the Mayor and Common Council, with the Freedom of the City, in a Gold Box.
